FORBUD Company has been running its business on construction market since 1986.

During this period it was structurally and organizationally transformed adjusting itself to the growing requirements on the construction market.

FORBUD is currently made by a group of 100 people, experienced professional personnel, modern construction equipment base and a thoroughly selected group subcontractors.

The energy in action, charisma of people contributing to the company's performance as well as the will to continue further growth led to the decision of creating in 2006 by FORBUD a depending partner FORBUD DEVELOPMENT Sp. z o.o., the basic goal of which is to obtain new land, carrying out single and multi family housing investments and their sales.

The over 20-year-old co-operation with various customers and the knowledge gained in the course of the work allow for delivering top quality services today. Our employees' and managing staff's top priority is building the best possible relations and trust with all Customers.
